

Honorary Life Membership of WACC

Approved by the Board of Directors

October 3, 2024

1. Criteria

WACC's Articles and Byelaws make provision for Honorary Life Membership to be offered to people who have significantly upheld WACC's vision, mission and principles in one or more of the following ways:

- * Having demonstrated a long involvement in Christian communication;
- * Having had a long association with WACC;
- * Having made a significant contribution to the development of Christian communication by encouraging and supporting initiatives in communication;
- * Having made a contribution to the field of Christian communication as a communication practitioner;
- * Having made a contribution in the field of research, administration, or education;
- * Having been active in the promotion and growth of WACC.

2. Process

1. At any given time, the Board of Directors will invite the Officers of WACC's Regional Associations to propose the names of two candidates, one man and one woman.
2. Regional Associations will assure that candidates are willing to accept Honorary Life Membership. By agreeing to do so, candidates also agree that a short biography and a photo will appear on WACC's web site.
3. For each candidate, Regional Associations will provide a resume of the candidate's qualifications with particular reference to their involvement with WACC.
4. The Board of Directors will review the proposals in order to determine the candidates' eligibility.
